ABOUT ME

I'm a passionate full-stack web developer specializing in front-end development. I have hands-on experience with the MERN and PERN stacks, building responsive, user-friendly web applications. Driven by continuous learning, I enjoy exploring new technologies and refining my skills through real-world projects and personal challenges.

CERTIFICATION

KodeGo Full-stack Web Development

I strengthened my front-end development skills and gained valuable experience by learning new technologies like Bootstrap and Node.js. My dedication and hard work led to recognition as one of the top students, earning me a Leadership award for my accomplishments.
